

Programme information

Management of confined spaces

Hazardous Industries Group joint event with Merseyside and North Wales Branches, and Tank Storage Association

Wednesday 20 September 2017

Weightmans LLP, The Plaza, 100 Old Hall Street, Liverpool, L3 9QJ

09.00–16.00

Programme

- | | | | |
|-------|---|-------|--|
| 09.00 | Registration and refreshments | 12.10 | Case study – Management of confined spaces in shipbuild and shiprepair
Tony Potter
HSEQ Director
Cammell Laird |
| 09.30 | Welcome and introductions
Joshua Rice
Chair
IOSH Hazardous Industries Group | 12.45 | Lunch and exhibition |
| 09.35 | Opening address and setting the scene
Andrew Amos
President
Tank Storage Association (TSA) | 13.45 | Case study – incidents and the regulator's perspective
Gerard McCulloch
Inspector
Health and Safety Executive (HSE) |
| 09.50 | Safety work in confined spaces and a focus on their classifications under the National Occupational Standard (NOS)
Mac Stephens
Senior Instructor
Outreach Rescue | 14.25 | Case study – managing confined spaces in the food and drink industry
John Nevitt
Group Health and Safety Manager
Tulip Foods |
| 10.30 | Sentencing guidelines linking to confined spaces – 12 months on Chris Green
Partner
Weightmans LLP | 15.00 | Afternoon refreshments and exhibition |
| 11.10 | Morning refreshments and exhibition | 15.20 | Case study – the trade union's perspective
Bud Hudspith
Health and Safety Advisor
Unite |
| 11.30 | A novel look at risk assessments
Gerard Hand
Director
GHP Safety;
Past President
IOSH | 15.50 | Review of the day
Joshua Rice |
| | | 16.00 | Event close |

Note: The programme details may be subject to change

In partnership with

